Local government is great because: It is one of the few fields where you actually get to help people on things that impact their day-to-day lives. You are exposed to people from all walks of life with different stories to tell, and most of them are pretty interesting. No day is the same and there is always a new challenge around the corner.

One UMANT event you wish existed is: UMANT Rodeo Night. A.K.A, come hang out in Mesquite!
